THE RULE OF LOVE

1 JOHN 2V7-14

THE STORY OF SAVLATION

ESTHER

WHAT WILL A BELIEVER NOT DO?

We should never be too quick or dogmatic in asserting what a believer will not do or what doctrinal error he cannot embrace. David committed adultery and murder to cover it. Solomon worshipped idols to pacify his wives. Peter denied the Lord Jesus and forsook him. The disciples on the Emmaus Road thought the Redeemer had failed. Paul took a legal Jewish vow. He and Barnabas had a dispute over John Mark that was never mended while they lived on earth. God's saints today are no greater or stronger than those remarkable men, — not even you or me.

- Don Fortner

“And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.”

- Isaiah 2v3

IT IS A FACT

When, by His grace, I know WHO HE IS, I better understand who and what I am!

When I know WHAT HE DID in obedience and death, I realize what I cannot do!

When I understand WHY HE MUST SUFFER, I understand how God can be just and justify me.

When I know WHERE HE IS, I can rest in the blessed hope that I shall one day be there too!

BLESS THE LORD, O MY SOUL

“Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

Who forgiveth all thine iniquities” Psalm 103v2

Every time I read this Psalm, I must stop in wonder at the very first of God's benefits mentioned, “Who forgiveth all thine iniquities.” There are many blessings mentioned afterward, but none can rival the glory and sheer wonder of this first one. That He should be willing to forgive my “smaller offenses” is a wonder; or that He should be willing to forgive an offense once or twice. But that He would, yea, does forgive all my iniquities each and every time they appear is more than this poor sinner can grasp. He has not dealt with me according to my transgressions, nor shall He ever. He has removed my transgressions as far from me as the east is from the west. Having withdrawn the frowning face of a Judge, He has shown me the merciful face of a loving Father. Bless the Lord, O my soul; and all the redeemed of the Lord, bless His holy name with me. Forget not this one wonderful benefit, and it shall give strength to your heart and health to your bones. All that is within me bless His holy name!

- Pastor Joe Terrell,

“Consider the work of God: for who can make straight which He hath made crooked?” - Ecclesiastes 7v13

Behold how the work of God seems crooked in the eyes of natural human reasoning and wisdom. “There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death. (Proverbs 14:12) Consider the work of God in salvation.

1. Consider the work of God the Father. He has from eternity chosen a people and put them in union with Jesus Christ. Consider that the Father purposed them to be holy, not by their works or merits, but by the work of Jesus Christ His Son. (Ephesians 1:3-6: 2 Timothy 1:9)

2. Consider the work of the Son of God. The Son was made flesh to represent all the Father gave him to save. Behold Jesus has accomplished all the righteousness and redemption of His people as their federal head and High Priest. (Hebrews 10:12-14: Isaiah 53:6-11) And having accomplished salvation God raised him from the dead and sat Him upon the throne of God. (Ephesians 1:20-23) All power is given to Jesus Christ for the purpose of giving eternal life to his elect. (John 17:1-3)

3. Consider the work of the Holy Spirit. All men by nature are spiritually dead and cannot come to Christ by faith. The Spirit of God will quicken every elect and redeemed sinner to spiritual life and faith and none of them will fail to believe on Christ. (John 3: 3-8; 2 Thessalonians 2:13; John 6:37-40:44; 2 Peter 3:9; Ephesians 2:8-10) And everyone that believes on Christ will persevere in faith only because we are kept by the power of God. (1 Peter 1:5; John 6:37-40) Therefore consider that “Salvation is of the LORD!” Consider that “Salvation belongeth to the LORD” (Jonah 2:9; Psalm 3:8) So then every believer rejoices when we consider God’s Work of Salvation.

But in the mind of the natural man God’s Salvation by grace is crooked. (Romans 1:18-25) Behold the vanity of the carnal mind to try to straighten out God’s Work of salvation in order fit their scheme of works and free will religion. O vain man will you straighten God’s salvation when He has made it crooked in your mind? The truth is that God’s work of Salvation is straight and its man’s depraved mind and heart that is crooked. See then how God has made foolish the wisdom of men by His gospel of salvation by grace! (1 Corinthians 1:20)
