WORSHIP HYMN

Take My Life And Let It Be #393

CLOSING HYMN

How Firm A Foundation #268

When I was a young man working in public works, seniority was a big deal. It usually meant more advantages such as more money—vacation time etc. Not so in the kingdom of God. In the kingdom of God Jesus Christ is Alpha and Omega, the first and the last and all in Christ are one. No one has more advantage than another because of seniority. All were chosen in Christ, at the same time, before the foundation of the world. All were blessed with all heavenly blessings in Christ at the same time, before the foundation of the world. Remember, the one who worked one hour received the same as the one who worked all day, Matthew 20:1-16. If anyone finds this upsetting, it is because you are trying to apply the principles of the kingdom of darkness to the kingdom of grace.

“Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called.” Rom 9v7

It is not what a person says that saves them. They can say they accepted Jesus. They can say they have joined a church. They can they support the Gospel. But, did Christ speak a word and save you? Through HIS command were you found accepted? Did HE fitly frame you together with a body of believers?

What we are, do, and say does not determine God’s salvation. But rather- His salvation determines what we are, do, and say. Your physical birth to a believing family or being born a physical Israelite does not secure your name in the Lamb’s book of life. Being born again in that heart work of circumcision- that is what makes you “the seed of Abraham”.

“How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!” Isaiah 52v7

Oh, how God’s people rest in His absolute sovereignty over all things concerning them. That is their good news. That is their peace. That is their hope of salvation. No matter how much their sin has abounded, it will never be able to reign over His mercy and grace that He has mightily supplied in the death of His Son! Every soul that the Father sovereignly chose, the Son sovereignly redeemed, and the Spirit has sovereignly called will through the ages of eternity cry, “Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth!”

BUT THIS MAN

God sees the whole human race in one of two representative men: Adam the first man, or the Lord Jesus Christ the second Adam. We all have done what our representative has done. When Adam sinned the whole human race sinned in him. At that moment we lost all righteousness, all life, all peace, and all hope in anything we can do to please God. The good news of the gospel hangs upon the little word “but”. The gospel says man is ruined in sin, BUT there is hope of salvation in the Lord Jesus Christ. The Lord Jesus Christ is so special and so glorious that He is set apart from all the rest because of who He is and what He has done for His people. Adam made his race sinners by his disobedience, but this man, the Lord Jesus Christ, made His race to be righteous by His obedience. Adam put his race under the curse of the law, but this man, the Lord Jesus Christ, delivered His race from the curse of the law by being made a curse for them. (Gal. 3:13) Adam made his race to be dead in sin, but this man, the Lord Jesus Christ, gave His race eternal life through His death as their substitute. Adam separated his race from God, but this man, the Lord Jesus Christ, brings His people near to God. (Eph. 2:13) How I love the good news that the Lord Jesus Christ is the opposite of me in every way. I could never satisfy God’s justice against my sin. I could never make an atonement for my sin, but this man, the Lord Jesus Christ, did. “But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God; From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool. For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.” (Heb. 10:12-14)

“And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.”

Rev 22:17

“But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.” 1Cor 8:6
