GRACIOUS TO OTHERS

When we see the great grace that God has shown to us, we will be gracious to others. If we know something of what He has forgiven us, we will find no difficulty in forgiving others. And if we learn that God has loved us without any merit nor cause on our part (loved the unlovable, one who hated Him), we shall be able to love others even as He has loved us for Christ's sake. The one who cannot do these things has never really seen himself.

- Henry Mahan

HEAR MY VOICE

“My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish...” John 10v27-30

The Gospel is not a theological position; the Gospel is not a denominational distinctive; nor is the Gospel a verse in the Bible backed by other verses. Well, if it is not those things, what is it? Beloved, our Gospel is a person, our God and Saviour Christ Jesus the Lord.

Our Lord said “My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish...” (John 10:27-30). Beloved, what good news! Christ Jesus the Lord says that He gives eternal life to His sheep, and they shall never perish! I'm so glad that the gospel is not an offer, aren't you? Our LORD, sovereignly, gives life to whom He's pleased to give life to, for our salvation is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy (Romans 9:15-16).

When our Lord spoke of His people as being His sheep, He was not teaching that every one in the world is a candidate to become a sheep; He was teaching us that among the masses of humanity you will find only two types of people; people that are His sheep and people that are not His sheep. It is through the preaching of the Gospel that His people will be made to hear His voice, they will savingly believe and follow Him; and because He is the author and finisher of their salvation, they shall never perish. Heavenly Father, he who has ears to hear (your elect) let them to ever hear your Son by your Spirit. AMEN! [Luke 8:4-18]

A FAR-REACHING, ALL-INCLUSIVE WORK

The salvation of a single sinner is a far-reaching, all-inclusive work of the Triune God. To single out any particular part fails to do justice to the whole miraculous work of grace.

For example, there is no salvation without election, redemption, calling, hearing, conversion, and perseverance. Sovereign grace is God providentially working all things together for good to those who love God. Someone asked, 'What does it take to bring a sinner to Christ?' The answer is, everything. Absolutely everything in time and in eternity is what it takes to bring one soul to Christ. Every action, every word, every previous event has been directed towards that one precise instant of time. It is a greater work than perhaps any of us yet realize (John 14:12).

The work of the Holy Spirit in accomplishing the elective purpose of the Father, and applying the redemption of the Son ought not to be overlooked. Salvation, daily deliverance from sin and security in Christ, is the work of the Holy Spirit just as surely as it is the work of the Father and the Son.

GRACED PEOPLE ARE GRACIOUS PEOPLE

Strangers to God's grace are infamous for being ungracious. They hate, lie, steal, rob, bicker, dispute, feud, and even war.

How different are those who have been saved by God's grace!

- Having received grace, they dispense grace.
- Having been filled with grace, they are graceful.
- Having been graced, they are gracious.
