WORSHIP HYMN

Like A River Glorious #287

CLOSING HYMN

Blessed Assurance #255

HIS GLORY

Ephesians 1v1-14

The Glory of the Triune God is paramount in all things.

This Glory is magnified in the electing of a people by the Father in Christ. It is magnified in the saving of that people through the blood of Christ. And it is magnified in the revelation of our Savior, in our new hearts, through the Holy Spirit.

When the child of God is finally brought home, we will forever sing praise to His Glory in perfection and for eternity.

WHY CHRIST PATIENTLY WAITED

Psalm 40: 1: I waited patiently for the LORD....6: Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou opened: burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required. 7: Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me, 8: I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart.

Due to our sin we never wait without sinful discontent over God's timing. But "patiently waiting" upon God his Father was the very character of our Lord Jesus. On the cross Christ "patiently waited" in faith, hope, and confidence that the Father would deliver him once Christ had declared God just and Justifier of his people. How amazing that the all-powerful Son of heaven loved his Father and his brethren so much that he willingly put himself in that place, "by the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all." (Heb 10:10). Brethren let us ask for more grace to "patiently wait" upon the LORD, believing and confessing from a pure heart, "My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me." His time is the right time.

Lord, save us and we will be saved. Call us and we will come. Speak to us and we will listen. Feed us and we will be fed. You have started the work; You must finish it. We are completely at Your mercy. We are the work of Your hands.

- Pastor Gabe Stalnaker (Kingsport, TN)

PRAY FOR ONE ANOTHER

“Moreover as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the LORD in ceasing to pray for you” (1 Samuel 12:23)

One of the most important things a believer can do for the church is to pray for one another. Pray that the Lord enable the pastor to preach Christ boldly and clearly. Pray that the Lord give the pastor a message for my heart this week. Pray that the Lord would enable us to see His glory. Pray that the Lord would be merciful to the lost. Pray that the Lord protect our children from being influenced by the wicked world in which they grow up. Pray that the Lord give our young people believing spouses. Pray that the Lord bless our older believers who have stood so long for the gospel. Pray that the Lord give all of us wisdom to conduct ourselves wisely. Pray that the Lord give all of us a heart of love that will preserve and protect the unity of the congregation. Pray that the Lord give all of us a true heart of worship. And lastly pray that the Lord teach us how to pray aright.

- Pastor Frank Tate (Ashland, KY)

MY FLESH AND YOURS

Someone said, “Old habits die hard.” Yet, old habits can be put to death. But the old lusts of the flesh will never die. Not until this body is in the grave will the lusts of the flesh be eradicated. Believers do not grow more sinful over the years; but in their own eyes they appear more sinful. The light of Christ’s glory and grace exposes the evil and sin of our hearts. The more we know of Christ, the more we are inclined to say with Paul, “I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing” (Romans 7:18). My hope of acceptance with God is not in my righteousness, but in the perfect righteousness of Christ.

“And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.”

Rev 22:17

“But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.” 1Cor 8:6
