CLOSING HYMN

At The Cross #129

The very first tomorrow is recorded in Genesis 1:8 - "... And the evening and the morning were the second day." Everything that happened on that first tomorrow was ordained by God before time began, and came to pass according to the eternal purpose of our Sovereign Lord. That very truth can be said of every tomorrow since, and of every tomorrow that is yet to come. Brethren, Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow. He holds every tomorrow in His omnipotent hands. WE CAN TRUST HIM! He is worthy of our trust! AMEN?

MAY THE LORD BE WITH YOU

When my fellow pastors and I converse on a Saturday, we commonly end our conversation with "May the Lord be with you tomorrow."

It is our desire that our Lord be with us every day. But especially do we desire His presence on the Lord's Day, when His people assemble to worship Him.

May the Lord again manifest Himself as Immanuel, "God With Us" (Matthew 1:23).

May the Lord prove faithful to His promise that "where two or three are gathered together in My name, I am there in the midst of them" (Matthew 18:20).

May the Lord be with us in such a way that we know that our name is Jehovah-Shammah, "The-LORD-Is-There" (Ezekiel 48:35).

May the Lord's presence be known as "He walks in the midst of the seven golden lampstands" (Revelation 2:1), which are His churches (1:20), and up and down each aisle in them.

May we say with Jacob at Bethel (Hebrew for "House of God"), "Surely Jehovah is in this place How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven!" (Genesis 28:16f).

And may the Lord be blessed to see us entering His gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise, and to hear us singing hymns extolling Him and praying prayers beseeching Him, and to listen to our preacher preaching God's Word – both the written and the incarnate.

Therefore, may the Lord accompany our preacher when he steps behind the pulpit. No man of God wants to walk into that place by himself.

COMPLETE IN CHRIST

“For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power”
(Col. 2:9-10).

All that is necessary to secure our eternal salvation is to be found in the Lord Jesus Christ (Phil. 3:7-9; 4:19). There is a completion or a complete filling up in Him, so as to leave nothing lacking in the sinner. In the Lord Jesus Christ dwells all the fullness of God (John 1:16; Col. 1:19). He is perfect and the believer stands perfected in Him (1Cor. 1:30; Col. 1:22; Jude 1:24).

All that is lacking in us by our ruin and sin in Adam is abundantly, freely and eternally supplied to us in the Lord Jesus Christ, "where sin abounded, grace did much more abound" (Rom. 5:20). His perfect obedience is our righteousness (Phil. 2:7-8). His sacrifice for sin is our atonement (Heb. 2:17). His word is our instruction (2Tim. 3:16). His wisdom is our direction (Col. 2:3). His power is our protection (1Peter 1:5). His blood sacrifice is our justification (Rom. 5:9). His grace is our salvation (Rom. 3:24). His eternal love is our security (Rom. 8:32-39). His everlasting mercy is our hope (Lam. 3:22-26). His fullness is our completeness (John 1:16). His immutability is our strength (Mal. 3:6). His resurrection is the guarantee of our final glory (Rev. 1:18). His intercession is the assurance of all our deliverance from sin (Heb. 7:25; 1 John 2:1). Tell me my friend, what could we possibly want for, when all the Godhead is engaged to make the believer complete in the Lord Jesus Christ, to His eternal glory (Rom. 8:29-30; Jude 1:24-25)?

Everything a guilty and vile sinner needs to stand before God justified, righteous, reconciled and accepted is found in Christ (Eph. 1:6; Phil. 3:7-9). Read this verse again carefully; “But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption” (1 Cor. 1:30). Remember, only that which God provides will God accept (Gen. 22:8-14; Phil. 4:19).
