CLOSING HYMN

Christ Receiveth Sinful Men #199

WHEN IS A PERSON TRULY SAVED?

- When it pleases God (Gal 1v15-16).
 - When, by the grace of God in the light of the holiness of God, they are brought to see their sin and inability (Luke 5v8).
 - When they see, to some extent, the glory of God in the face of Christ Jesus (Rom 3v25-26).
 - When they can truly bow to the crown rights of the Lordship of Jesus Christ (Php 2v10).
 - When they are called home to glory, still believing on Christ who loved them and gave Himself for them (Heb 11v16).
- Henry T. Mahan

In recent weeks, we have been studying 1 Corinthians 15 in our Bible Study. I am revelling in the fact that Christ's victory over sin, death, hell and the grave, and all blessings given to Him as our Captain and Forerunner, are ours in Him, and ours because of Him. He is the Firstfruits to God of our resurrection. Though in Adam all die, in Christ, all are made alive. He has entered His victory. He shall soon give us that victory that is now His by His redeeming death (Rom. 8:23-24; Eph. 1:13-14). What a triumphant day that will be! What unspeakable joy we shall then know (Jude 24)! What will it be like to see Christ and think and speak and act only without sin, in perfect holiness (Luke 1:68-75), and that, for everlasting ages, without any taint of sin. We know nothing of this in our experience now but what we know by faith, for now, all that we think, do and say is polluted by our natural, fleshly, sinful nature. But all will be gain when we leave this body and take up residence with Christ (Php. 1:19-23)!

Serious and mortal sickness of many near and dear saints have flooded my mind these past few weeks. As a result, the thought of Christ's victory over death and our victory in Him, ravishes the heart.

Lord, enable me to pray for communion with my great Physician- instead of physical health. Enable me to pray for the riches of the wisdom and knowledge of my God- instead of the riches of this world. Enable me to pray for peace and rest in my soul found in Christ my Sabbath- instead of peace and rest in this body of death.

WHO IS THE BLESSED PERSON? (Psalm 32:1-2)

Who would you say is the truly blessed man? Most people would probably say; well, it is the person who has good health, "if you have good health you have everything." To them I would answer, good health is only temporary. One day soon the flesh must wither and die and after that is judgment (Psalm 103:14; Isa. 40:6). Others might answer that the person who is wealthy, surely he is a blessed man. Again, wealth may purchase a lot of things and influence many people, but we can be sure that we are not redeemed with corruptible things as silver and gold (1 Peter 1:18).

David in Psalm 32 gives us the right answer to this very important and sobering question. "Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered. Blessed is the man unto whom the LORD imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile." Truly, here is the statement of the Almighty God that identifies who is truly blessed. It is the person who through the bloody sacrifice of Jesus Christ, (the sinner's Substitute) has had his sin covered by the effectual atonement of the appointed Lamb (Heb. 2:17; John 1:29); his transgressions are forgiven because the Saviour took our sins and judgment to Himself (1 Peter 3:18). Our Lord also declares unto us that the believer is blessed, because the Lord will not impute, charge or reckon our iniquities unto us (Rom. 8:1; Rom. 4:6).

In the light of this scripture and many others throughout the Word of God, who would you say is truly blessed of God? Certainly it is plain to see, it is the believer who is resting the whole of his salvation in Jesus Christ the Righteous (1 John 2:1-2). Carefully read the following scripture. "Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD. For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land and not inhabited. Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose hope the LORD is. For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit" (Jer. 17:5-8).
