SIN AND FORGIVENESS

We love to hear the gospel that tells us of sin forgiven, of being washed from our sin in His precious blood. Sin is too familiar with us. We have committed it, we are affected by it daily, and it is our daily trial. Sin of our past, sin is our burden today, sin as it is, is our own affliction until we enter into our eternal rest. It is a battle we have entered into that is a war without and within...but, thank God for Eph. 1:7 says; "In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sin;" how? "according to the riches of his grace!" Forgiveness of sin, what a joy, what greater news can a sinner hear? God's free grace gave us His son to redeem us by His own blood. God's free grace came and effectually applied that blood to our souls! It was free grace that forgave us all our sin, "where sin abounded, grace did much more abound." Rom. 5:20.

This paragraph below is in the bulletin every week for our brothers and sisters in New Caney, TX. What a blessing!

WELCOME

Sinners are welcome at this church. We are a local body of the Lord Jesus Christ. As you spend time with us, you'll soon discover we're an imperfect church, with an imperfect pastor, yet by God's undeserved grace, we preach, believe, and know the perfect gospel of our never failing Lord Jesus Christ. Reader, we call His name Jesus for He shall (not might, not maybe) rather He shall save His people from their sins. And beloved believing sinner you already know it, you are complete in Him, saved to the uttermost [Heb 7:25].

Acceptable Worship – Acceptance with God lies at the foundation of all true worship, for there must be an accepted worshipper before there can be acceptable worship.

A Broken Heart

Is that which is broken good for anything? One cannot see in a broken mirror; one cannot drink from a broken glass; one cannot work with a broken arm; one cannot walk with a broken leg. ONLY THE HEART IS AT ITS BEST STATE WHEN IT IS BROKEN! "The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart" (Psalm 34:18).

- Henry Mahan

“Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me. But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children’s bread, and to cast it to dogs. And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters’ table.” -- Matthew 15:25-27

My wife and I have a little dog. We love that little dog. That little dog serves no real purpose in life, she only desires to be the object of our affection. She begs for food. Sometimes she has to be cleaned up after. She is totally dependent on us and without our constant care, she will die. She is somewhat a liability. Yet in spite of her liabilities, she brings us great joy. She is always glad to see us when we return from being away. She loves us dearly and desires to be with us every hour. We go to great lengths to make sure every need of our dog is provided. We see to it that she is treated with compassion and tender care. Regardless of all her endearing qualities, at the end of the day, she is still a dog. She still acts like a dog. I think she enjoys being a dog. Many dogs in this world do not fare so well as our dog does. From my perspective, being OUR dog is a wonderful privilege. I have seen other dogs that do not fare as well as our dog. It seems that the quality of a dog’s life depends on who their master is.

I rejoice greatly that I, the dog that I am, belong to that Master who constantly sees to it that I have all I need and yet much more. My Master, the Lord Jesus Christ, requires only one thing from me in return. What does He require of me? Nothing but my love, adoration and worship of Him. How wonderful and life sustaining it is to constantly eat of the crumbs that fall from His table. Child of God, I like being my Master’s dog! Don’t you?
