CLOSING HYMN

Blest Be The Tie That Binds #187

Believer, God only puts trials in our path that HE might grow us in faith to trust HIM more and ourselves less. Christ promises his blood-bought child, "Because I live, ye shall live also." "What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us who can be against us?" (Jn 14: 19; Rom 8:31)

- Pastor Clay Curtis (Ewing, NJ)

God does not say "when I see your faith," or "when I see your believing," or "when I see your experience," or "when I see your baptism," or "when I see your graces," but "When I see the blood, I will pass over you."

- Pastor Milton Howard (Ball, LA)

TIME AND PLACE SALVATION

There are many who make much out of a "know so" salvation, and insist on a time and place when "you got saved". Well, I have a time and place when the Lord Jesus Christ saved me and brought me to know Him.

The Time - "Chosen In Christ before the foundation of the world", again "God who hath saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to His own purpose and grace given us in Christ before the foundation of the world" "When it Pleas'd God who separated me from my mother's womb and called me by His grace".

The Place – Two thousand years ago when Christ bore my sins in His own body on the tree, when He was made sin for me and put away my sin once for all by the sacrifice of Himself. Do you have a time and place when God saved you by His grace in Christ?

- Pastor Don Bell (Crossville, TN)

The command "Fear not" is found in some form over 300 times in the Scripture. If "All things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose" and "If God be for us, who can be against us?". Then, indeed, there is nothing to fear.

-Pastor Todd Nibert (Lexington, KY)

Are there feelings involved in salvation? Most surely. Are faith and repentance, confession, sorrow, commitment, peace, and love, real heartfelt experiences for the child of God? Sometimes. Oh, how sweet they are when the Lord is pleased to allow us to taste these things. However, it is sort of like “liberty” when it comes to preaching. Liberty certainly adds to the enjoyment of preaching. Preaching can be a painful process without it. But, liberty adds nothing to the power or effects of preaching. Often times the Lord will use a message struggled to be delivered for more eternal benefits, than one brought with great freedom of speech. So it is with feelings. Enjoy the sweet cordials of grace when they come. But, often times the Lord is strengthening the roots of the tree in the winter when the weather is cold and the branches are bare.

- Pastor Greg Elmquist (Apopka, FL)

There is a people who know “the last day”, the Judgment Day is coming. And they have no fear of its coming. It’s not because of foolishness or a lack of care that they are not worried. They are not afraid because their sin is all put away in Christ. Their sin is covered with the blood of Christ. And they now rest in the Savior’s perfect righteousness made for them. He has given us his word “my people shall never be ashamed” (Joel 2:27).

“But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness; But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.”

1Cor 1v23-24
