CLOSING HYMN

Savior, Again To Thy Dear Name #81

SIMPLE ASSURANCE TO BELIEVERS

"All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out." - John 6v37

What is our Lord's sure promise to those that have come to Christ, come to Him still, and shall come? (laying all of their hope of wisdom, righteousness, sanctification and redemption on Him and Him alone)

It is seven words, each is only one syllable, and the biggest word is four letters- "I WILL IN NO WISE CAST OUT".

Salvation that is "Of the Lord" is a certain and eternal salvation!

HE SAVED US – Titus 3:5

This is a three word summary of the gospel we preach: He saved us.

He: God. God did all of the saving. God the Father elected a people unto salvation. God the Son redeemed those people by the blood of His sacrifice for them. God the Holy Spirit calls those people to Christ and gives them life and faith to come. God keeps and preserves those people and brings them to glory by the power of His grace and love for them.

Saved: God saved His elect from all of their sin. He redeemed His people by paying their sin debt with His precious blood. Christ saved His people from the curse of the law by being made a curse for them and dying the death that they deserve. (Gal. 3:13)

Us: Christ didn't come to try to save as many people as might would decide to accept Him. Christ came to save a specific people: the people the Father gave Him to save (John 17:9). Christ came to save those people who belong to Him because the Father gave them to Him (Matt. 1:21). Christ came to save His sheep and only His sheep (John 10:15).

All of the "us" who are chosen, called, and believe on Christ are fully and eternally saved because He saved us.

What servant chooses his own task? His own place of labor? His own time of service? Does not the faithful servant ask, "Lord, what would you have me to do?" Everybody wants to take the floor, few care to sweep it.

HAVE YOU READ?

THE Lord Jesus Christ posed this question (indictment) to the religious leaders of His day. He asked this of them quite often, “Have ye never read?” These men prided themselves in their supposed knowledge of Scripture but proved they did not know it all, for they did not know the living and true God and Jesus Christ of Whom the scriptures spake. The same question, or indictment, needs to be leveled at our generation . . . “Have ye never read?”

There are more bibles today than ever, but few who truly read them. And the Bibles most do read are perverted versions of the original. There are so many today who hold the Truth in unrighteousness; who literally hold a bible in their hands, yet use it as a religious prop for vain glorious and covetous reasons. Men and women subject the Word of God to all manner of indignities and insults, using it for mere show and a display of their ‘godliness.’

May God make us a Bible-reading people like the noble Bereans of old. May the Lord cause us to seek His will and way; to seek all our answers from His Word only; esteeming the wisdom of the world as foolishness and the wisdom that is God’s Word as the only true wisdom, for truly . . . “The Law of The Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the Testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple. The Statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the Commandments of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes. The Fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever: the Judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether” (Psalm 19:7-9). What need have we of anything other than God’s glorious Book? God forbid that we should esteem anything said or written by a human being more than Word of the living God.

“But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness; But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.”
