CLOSING HYMN

Grace Greater Than All Our Sin # 209

A man is never so fit for believing as when he is most unfit. It is unfitness, not fitness, that is really required. What is fitness for being washed? Filth! What is fitness for receiving pardon? Guilt! If you are filthy, if you are guilty, you have all the fitness that is required. So, come and find in Jesus Christ all that meets your greatest need.

- C.H. Spurgeon

The great mistake made by most of the Lord's people is in hoping to discover in themselves that which is to be found in Christ alone.

- A.W. Pink

AN OPENED DOOR

“For a great door and effectual is opened unto me...”

1 Cor 16: 9

There are doors that we would like to open. But we need Christ to open the door. Paul speaks of this often. The Lord “opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles” (Act 14:27); at Troas “a door was opened unto me of the Lord” (2 Cor 2:12). Paul asked the saints to pray for him that Christ would open the door that he might preach “pray also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ ” (Col 4: 3). Christ commands his child to open the door of the heart “Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me” (Rev 3:20) But it is Christ alone that gets the glory for opening it, “My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door, and my bowels were moved for him” (Song 5:4) When the Lord Jesus opens we find that Christ himself is the Door as well as the one who opened, “Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep...by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture” (Joh 10:7-9). We would like to open many doors that are closed to us. But Christ's power alone determines if the door is open or shut, “These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth” (Rev 3:7). Is there a door that is closed to you my dear brother or sister? Let us ask our sovereign Savior to open the door.

- Pastor Clay Curtis (Ewing, NJ)

HAPPY IN CHRIST

The longer I live and the more, by God's grace, that I learn about myself and about Christ the Savior, the more convinced (and happy) I am that Christ is all in salvation. If there was one work left for me to do, one good attitude left for me to have, one moment left to me to hang onto Christ by my own strength, I would surely perish because I am convinced of my sinfulness and weakness. But if Christ is all in salvation (and everything else too) then I can happily rest easy in Christ since I am convinced He will never fail.

- Pastor Frank Tate (Ashland, KY)

The very first tomorrow is recorded in Genesis 1:8 - "... And the evening and the morning were the second day." Everything that happened on that first tomorrow was ordained by God before time began and came to pass according to the eternal purpose of our Sovereign Lord. That very truth can be said of every tomorrow since, and of every tomorrow that is yet to come. Brethren, Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow. He holds every tomorrow in His omnipotent hands. WE CAN TRUST HIM! He is worthy of our trust! Amen?

San Diego Grace Fellowship

"But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness; But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God."
