CLOSING HYMN

I Will Sing the Wondrous Story #468

And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth. And he that was dead came forth..."

John 11:43-44

When the Lord Jesus stood before the tomb of His beloved friend Lazarus, (who had been dead four days) did He cry, "Lazarus, I have made life possible for you, will you choose to accept it?" How absurd! Lazarus was dead; he could make no choice or decision, nor could he exert his own will. So, when did Lazarus receive life? Was it when he came forth, and because he came forth, or was life given to him before he came forth? The answer should be obvious!

-pastor David Eddmenson

Complete In Christ

In Christ, there is no further perfection to attain. In Christ, a sinner is made to be everything that God requires him to be. In Christ, wisdom is complete, righteousness is complete, sanctification is complete, and redemption is complete. To know Him is to know it all, and to have Him is to have it all. In Christ, we are as perfectly complete as we will ever be (1 Cor. 1:30).

-pastor Gabe Stalnaker

Historical Faith

"My friends, we mistake a historical faith for a true faith, wrought in the heart by the Spirit of God. You fancy you believe, because you believe there is such a book as we call the Bible — because you go to church; all this you may do, and have no true faith in Christ. Merely to believe there was such a person as Christ, merely to believe there is a book called the Bible, will do you no good, more than to believe there was such a man a Caesar or Alexander the Great. The Bible is a sacred depository. What thanks have we to give to God for these lively oracles! But yet we may have these, and not believe in the Lord Jesus Christ.

My dear friends, there must be a principle wrought in the heart by the Spirit of the living God. ...Now, my dear friends, did God ever show you that you had no faith? Were you ever made to bewail a hard heart of unbelief? Was it ever the language of your heart, Lord, give me faith; Lord, enable me to lay hold on Thee; Lord, enable me to call Thee my Lord and my God? Did Jesus Christ ever convince you in this manner? Did He ever convince you of your inability to close with Christ, and make you to cry out to God to give you faith? If not, do not speak peace to your heart. May the Lord awaken you, and give you true, solid peace before you go hence and be no more!"

- George Whitefield (1714-1770)

Things To Be Afraid Of

1. We should be afraid OF ourselves. Our hearts are deceitful. Our flesh is weak. Is there not anything of which we are capable?
2. We should be afraid of being left TO ourselves. Lord keep me, restrain me, and forsake me not. Without the Lord as our Shepherd, we are prey to every wild beast.
3. We should be afraid of standing before God BY ourselves. To not have the Lord Jesus Christ as our Substitute, Sin-bearer and Advocate before God, would leave us in our sins and under the wrath of God.

-pastor Greg Elmquist

When Doctrine Becomes Experience

John 12:41 says, "When Isaiah saw His glory, he spake of Him." This is when doctrine becomes experience, ceremony and rituals give way to hearts communion, and the form of prayer is replaced by praise, thanksgiving, and intercession. When we are enabled to see the glory of His grace, His election, His incarnation, His holiness, His justice, His intercession, and His glorious return, we will not only SPEAK of Him, but we will THINK of Him, REJOICE in Him, and LIVE for His glory! This sight of Christ's person and work, in all His redemptive glory, is not one that natural eyes can see; but it is beheld as the Spirit of God, using the Word of God, awakens us to our need and His sufficiency.

1. When we learn of what happened in the garden and the consequences of that dreadful fall, we will see the glory of HIS GRACE to the sons of men.
2. When we learn of our total inability and the impossibility of our ever coming to Christ apart from divine assistance, we will see the glory of HIS ELECTION. Election is not just a doctrine; it is a necessity.
3. When we learn something of the corruption of the flesh and the sinfulness of our nature, we will see the glory of HIS INCARNATION. "The Word was made flesh." What a wonder! What a mystery!
4. When we learn of the holiness and strictness of His divine law, we will see the glory of HIS OBEDIENCE. "He knew no sin." "By His obedience many were made righteous."
5. When we learn of the true wrath of God against sin and the unchanging justice of our Holy God, we will see the glory of HIS DEATH.
6. When we learn of the sinfulness of our best deeds and the evil in our best works, we will see the glory of HIS INTERCESSION!
