CLOSING HYMN

Saved by Grace #512

"Prayer will make a man cease from sin, or sin will entice a man to cease from prayer."

—John Bunyan (1628-1688)

The voice from the cross did not summon men to do, but to be satisfied with what was done, "It is finished." The sacrifice of the Lord Jesus Christ is the only perfect thing which has ever been presented to God on man's behalf. "It shall be perfect to be accepted, there shall be no blemish therein" (Leviticus 22:21).

—Scott Richardson

Man's entire apostasy and death in sin, so that he cannot save himself, and God's entire supremacy, so that He saves whom He will, are doctrines exceedingly distasteful to human pride. But they are Scriptural. Why was one thief saved and the other lost? "Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in Thy sight" (Matt. 11:25-27). God was not bound to save the one and He had power enough to have saved the other, and neither could save himself. What made the difference? The Sovereign grace of God!

—Horatius Bonar (1808-1889)

Mercy

"And he (The Lord) said, I will make all my goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before thee; and will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy" (Exodus 33:19).

Mercy is, "not getting what we truly do deserve". Grace is, "getting what we truly don't deserve". God showed mercy to us when He gave Christ what we deserved. And God showed grace to us when He gave us what Christ deserved. Christ received our sin, and we received His reward. Christ received our rejection, and we received His acceptance. Christ received our death, and we received His life. If God ever gives us the eyes of faith to see that, He will have shown us His glory!"

—pastor Gabe Stalnaker

Be Content and Be Confident

Someone wrote that Martin Luther's strength and confidence lay in the fact that he believed so strongly that the ministry in which he was engaged was not his own but the Lord's. He often prayed, "Lord, this is your cause, not mine." What would this persuasion do for you and me? Is not most of our depression and unhappiness caused by the desire to SEE more than we are seeing, DO more than we are doing, HAVE more than we have, and to BE what we are not? If this is THE LORD'S CAUSE AND NOT MINE, then I ought to be content to serve diligently where He has placed me, with the gifts He has given me, doing all that I find to do, and rejoicing in His love. "Where two or three are met in My Name." Enoch walked with God in a day few did. Paul rejoiced in the Lord when all had forsaken him except Luke.

—Henry Mahan

The Gospel

Christ is the Gospel! Writing by the Spirit of God, the apostle Paul declared that the gospel of God is "Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh; And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead" (Rom 1: 3-4).

—pastor Clay Curtis

Are You Hungry?

*“Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness:
for they shall be filled.” (Matthew 5: 6)*

I read that during the days of the Great Depression in this country there was such a famine of bread that families had to go to soup kitchens or bread trucks and wait in long lines in awful conditions just to get enough food for one meal. They did not have a concern for what the kitchen looked like, or the bread truck, or those who served. Never did they ever think of not going because the time did not suit them just right. It was not a concern how far they might have to travel or that they were required to go back time-after time for each meal. No. None of those things mattered for one simple reason: they were hungry. The only thing that mattered was getting the bread. So it is when God gives a hunger for Christ the Bread.

Well of water, ever springing, – Bread of life so rich and free, Untold wealth that never faileth, – My Redeemer is to me.

-pastor Clay Curtis

Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

-John 6:27
