CLOSING HYMN

The Church's One Foundation #186

The voice from the cross did not summon men to do, but to be satisfied with what was done, "It is finished." The sacrifice of the Lord Jesus Christ is the only perfect thing which has ever been presented to God on man's behalf. "It shall be perfect to be accepted, there shall be no blemish therein" (Leviticus 22:21).

- Scott Richardson (1923-2010)

"...Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ." - Romans 1:7

Salvation is entirely by the grace of God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. All who God saves are chosen by grace, redeemed by grace, regenerated by grace, called by grace, gifted by grace, grown by grace, preserved by grace, resurrected by grace and at last presented faultless to God by grace.

"His Name Shall be Called Wonderful"

Isa. 9:6

Everything about our Lord Jesus is wonderful. Here the prophet says; "His name shall be called wonderful". We sing that chorus; Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, there is just something about that name". There is "no other name under heaven given among men whereby we MUST be saved." (Acts 4:12)

His birth is wonderful, Angels came to proclaim it; "behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is BORN A SAVIOR, which is Christ the Lord". (Lu.2:10-11) What made His birth so wonderful? It was the Eternal God coming down and assuming flesh, uniting Himself to man through the womb of a virgin. Once he assumed flesh, and became a man, He would always be a man. Oh, yes He is wonderful.

His life and works were wonderful. His life was lived in perfection, lived without sin before God and man. He lived not for Himself, but for His people, to bare their sin in His own body on the tree, to work out for them an everlasting righteousness for them. He did this by His holy unblameable life lived in this sinful world, yet being without sin Himself. His works of mercy and compassion, how wonderful were they? Listen to what was said of them; "But the men marveled saying, what manner of man is this that even the winds and the sea obey Him! Men marveled at his words, at his deeds, at his compassion, his miracles. Oh, yes He is wonderful in His life and works!

His grace and mercy are wonderful. Everyone who has "tasted that the Lord is Gracious", know how wonderful his grace is. Consider the people to whom he has shown his grace and mercy. It is to sinners, the ungodly, our Lord said; "I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and revealed them unto babes. Even so, Father for it seemed good in thy sight." (Matt. 11:25-26). If any one of us received from the Lord God what we deserved, we would be utterly and eternally lost. But blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, "who hath saved us, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began" (2 Tim 1: 9).

Emmanuel

“Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call His name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.” (Matthew 1:23)

Consider the blessedness of the name itself, of Emmanuel, “God with us.”

Sweet consideration to the heart of the believer! For as God, it is evident, that all He did when upon the earth and all that He is doing now in heaven, was and is effectual to all the purposes of salvation. The infinite dignity of His person gives an infinite merit to His work, and cannot fail, both in His blood and righteousness, to justify His people, and render them truly acceptable in the sight of God their Father, and fully secure to them the everlasting blessedness and glory of heaven. And as He is man and God in our nature, so does His nearness and dearness give an interest to His people in all that belongs to Him; yea, all the blessing come home with a tenfold sweetness to our hearts, because He is Emmanuel, God with us. God in our nature, and we are the members of His body, of His flesh, and of His bones.

- Robert Hawker (1753-1827)

David Displeased The Lord (2 Samuel 11)

The Lord saw David's sin and it displeased him. All born of Adam are great sinners. How great then a salvation is Christ's redemption for Sinners, which pleases the Lord?
